About the Company

Valerian Pharma is a trusted provider of high-quality, Food supplements and cosmetics products that are inspired by the wisdom of traditional remedies from ancient times and new research. Founded by pharmacist Ahmad Altomeh, located in Sofia, Bulgaria in European Union.

the company is dedicated to improving the well-being of its customers by using pure, nourishing ingredients that are sourced from around the globe. Our journey began in 2015 by supplying and selling medical and cosmetic products.

We believe that people can live a healthy and beautiful life. We started researching and developing natural products with our own brand. At Valerian Pharma, we believe in the power of nature to support optimal health and beauty, and we strive to harness this power in every product we create. Our team is made up of highly skilled and experienced professionals who are committed to continuous innovation and improvement and who are dedicated to preserving and sharing their ancestors' cultural knowledge and traditions.

Our Offered Services

Develop new products:

- ◆ Regarding nutritional supplements and cosmetics products, whether you'd like to create new products, or modify an existing product, we can work with you to turn the product concept into a retail-ready product. We can develop a superior formula to an existing product, or fill an untapped product niche in the health products market.
- ◆ We have experienced research and development scientists. Drawing on the latest market research, our team of scientists works closely with the production staff to produce practical solutions to consumer needs. You'll find that by working with us, which has access to the necessary equipment and experience in formulating similar health products, can help reduce the amount of time it takes to get a new product to market.
- ◆ We can assist you in formulating supplements in a dosage format and formulation that your consumers prefer. We stay up-to-date on the latest market trends so you can avoid ingredients that customers would prefer not to buy and include the latest most-desired ingredients.
